ICEBREAKER: What ONE word would you use to describe God?
 Briefly share why you selected that particular word.

- ① We are unable to describe God because He exceeds human comprehension. Yet, there is much that God does reveal about Himself. What aspects of God's character would you like to know or understand more?
- ② Would you describe yourself as a "control-freak?" When do you feel the most out-of-control in your life? Describe how you feel when you are facing circumstances that are out of your control?
- ③ Discuss the following quote from pastor and author, Francis Chan: "Our lack of strength comes from our lack of certainty that we serve a God who can do anything. We become stronger when we fully understand how strong and powerful God is."
- ④ When do you question whether or not God is really in control of your life or circumstances? What did you learn from Lee's message this weekend that you can apply to your situation?
- ⑤ As Christ-followers, we are a part of God's family. Therefore, God is in complete control of our lives, as well as the experiences we have in our lives. Share a life experience where you experienced God's tremendous love and grace in your life, even though the experience was difficult to endure.
- ⑥ The verses from this week's message reveal different parts of God's character. Review the verses and talk about the one that had the most impact on you. Did this verse teach, encourage or challenge you?
- ⑦ What was the most important thing you took away from this weekend's message? How have you been challenged to think or live differently?
