

Adventure (US)

Moving relationships from monotonous to adventurous.

BOTTOM LINE – There is more adventure for us when I am free to be spontaneous.

TOO MUCH

TOO LITTLE

Healthy spontaneity is learning when to _____.

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. ⁷And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil spirits. ⁸He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler's bag, no money. ⁹He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes. ¹⁰“Wherever you go,” he said, “stay in the same house until you leave town. ¹¹But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.” ¹²So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. MARK 6:6-12

3 RESTRICTING CONCERNS:

FOOD = “I don’t have the _____.”

TRAVELERS BAG = “I don’t feel _____.”

MONEY = “I don’t have the _____.”

3 GUIDING QUESTIONS FOR SPONTANEOUS ADVENTURE US:

WHO? Who are the people I want to be spontaneously available for?

WHERE? Where can I say NO in order to be free for a spontaneous “Yes”?

WHAT? What is God inviting me to spontaneously step into?

“An inconvenience is only an adventure wrongly considered; an adventure is an inconvenience rightly considered.” GK CHESTERTON.
