DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

ICEBREAKER: When have you experienced a major change in your life?

How do you view change? Do you see it as an event that begins with something new or a journey of transition that starts at the end of something? Explain.

When struggling to accept the ending of something, do you most often find yourself comparing, criticizing, or catastrophizing?

Have you experienced the ending of something recently that you need to name and possibly grieve? Read John 12:24-28. What do these verses teach us about endings and how we can release them to God?
